The evaluation of your application has been completed and the following applies toward the requirements for the position of Early Childhood Teacher in a child care center. Therefore, it is the decision of the State Department of Human Services that based upon the Colorado Department of Human Services Rules and Regulations for Child Care Centers/Less than 24-Hour Care, Section 7.702.54 A 1 a-i your application for Early Childhood Teacher has been approved. You meet requirements to function as an Early Childhood Teacher.

Completed two (2) three-semester (3) Early Childhood Education courses from a regionally accredited college or university, which includes at least one (1) three-semester (3) hour course in Introduction to Early Childhood Education or Guidance Strategies and 24 months (3640 hours) of verified experience.

Meets The Minimum Age of 18 Years.

Please maintain a copy of this letter in your personal file at the Child Care facility for future review. The Colorado Department of Human Services does not issue licenses or certificates to Early Childhood Teachers. This letter offers proof of your Early Childhood Teacher qualification.

Sincerely,

Erin C. Mewhinney, Director
Division of Early Care & Learning
